SISTER JEAN MARIE AMORE

Sister Jean Marie Amore Retires As Academic Dean Of St. Joseph's College, Patchogue Campus

S. George Aquin O'Connor, President of St. Joseph's College, has informed the college community that she has, with great regret, accepted S. Jean Marie Amore's resignation from her position as Academic Dean, College of Arts and Sciences, Suffolk Campus.

S. Jean Marie came St. Joseph's in 1966 and served as a member of the child study faculty until her appointment as Dean in 1985. In 1990, S. Jean was elected a General Councilor of the Sisters of St. Joseph, a position which was part-time until 1995. In July of this year, the role of Councilor will become full time, and it will be impossible for S. Jean to continue as Dean.

"S. Jean has given superb leadership, fostering the growth of the Suffolk Campus while maintaining our tradition of academic excellence. She will be sorely missed, and I hope she will return to St. Joseph's when her period of Congregational service is over," said S. George.

CLASS OF

On behalf of the faculty and administrators of St. Joseph's, I congratulate the Class of 1995. For each graduate here today, who has uniquely arrived at the point of completion of a baccalaureate degree, this ceremony celebrates the fulfillment of an important accomplishment in life.

A traditional Wabanaki Indian tale tells of four people who make a journey to visit the powerful ancient being, Gluskap, who does many things to make the earth a better place. Each of the four people has a wish and Gluskap grants these wishes. He gives each one a pouch and tells them not to open them until they are in their own lodges. Three of the wishes, however, are selfish ones and bring ironic consequences. Not only that, the first three people are so eager to get their heart's desire that they open their pouches before they reach their dwellings.

The woman who wishes to be taller than all others becomes a tree; the man who wishes never to die becomes a stone; the one who wishes to have more possessions than anyone else receives so many things that her canoe sinks and she drowns. Only the fourth person, who wishes to be able to help his people, waits until he is in his lodge before looking in his pouch. It is empty, but when he opens it, good thoughts come into his mind and he finds within his own heart that which was formerly hidden from him. He discovers the knowledge needed to show his people the right way to live.

This story is appropriate for this occasion because it is our hope that the knowledge you, the graduating class, have acquired at St. Joseph's will be transformed into a capacity for your making the world a better place. Eastern religions talk about "karma" - reaping what one has sown. The time has come for you to reap what you have sown.

At St. Joseph's, you have been exposed to the conviction that human existence is significant, that life essentially makes sense in spite of our confusion, that we are not here on earth by accident but for a purpose, and that whatever that individual purpose may be, it demands from each of us the discovery of our own identity and totality. Every true teaching, every genuine tradition, has sought to educate its students to become followers of the great quest for one's true self.

We believe every person is a potential hero/heroine; and the world we live in needs our heroism as it has never before been needed in human memory. Today, it is not so much the terrible things that are decimating us - Bosnia, Haiti, Cherchyna, homelessness, crime, violence, - because somehow we have always managed to survive terrible things. It is rather our obsession with the terrible things, our addiction to bad news, and our increasing insensitivity to it that has gotten into our blood. So much of the news we hear, see and read is so sensational and on such a grand scale that evil and suffering cease to be real to us. The world (we) need to believe that God opens up possibilities of redemptive human change. But possible means that we are free to decide against such change and go on with life as usual; or, we can choose to use these moments to point us in the direction of true humanness.

To decipher our own subconscious symbols and beliefs, to unravel the real meanings behind our nations, and to witness unblinkingly the parts we actually play in our society and world exact from us the courage and discernment that is the beginning of the quest for heroism for which we are created. The contribution we can make to this age is an image of life in which our technology, our work and our values are in harmony with humankind's hunger for freedom, dignity, and unity.

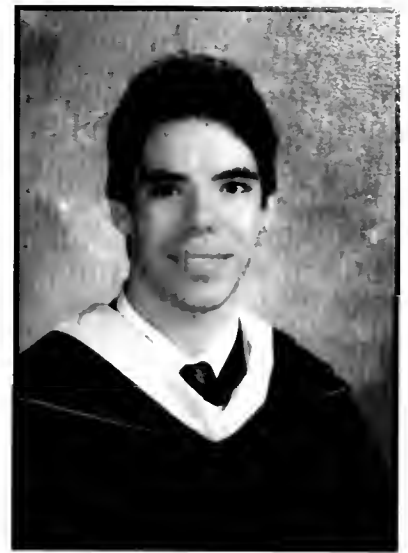

In the Wabanaki Indian tale, the person who was most fulfilled received, something not material, but the knowledge to bring about a better world, and he found this, not in his pouch, but in his heart - that sacred place within each of us that is true and whole and provides good guidance when needed. Our hope is that you too make the right wishes in life and remember that the true treasure is the knowledge found in your own heart. We also hope your "pouches" will soon be full.

God bless you.

SISTER HELEN PREJEAN

St. Joseph's College, Patchogue, recently presented its first Non-Violence Award to three dedicated and inspirational individuals, Sister Helen Prejean, Thomas McDermott and Carolyn McCarthy. Sister Helen Prejean is an author and death row counselor. Her Pulitzer-prize nominated book, Dead Man Walking: An Eyewitness Account of the Death Penalty in the United States, recounts her role as "spiritual advisor" to a death row inmate and the soulsearching journey which ultimately led her to witness his execution in the electric chair. A popular speaker, S. Helen is a staunch opponent of the death penalty.

Joining S. Helen as recipients of the award were Thomas McDermott, a Garden City attorney who was wounded in the LIRR shootings last year, and Carolyn McCarthy whose husband, Dennis, was killed in the attack, and son, Kevin, seriously wounded. Both McDermott and McCarthy have been outspoken in the issue of gun-control since the LIRR incident. The event was well attended by students, faculty, and the general public.

Dean To Resign

Staff Compiled
Talon

The following is a letter from President Sister George Aquin O'Connor, C.S.J., concerning the resignation of Sister Jean Marie Amore, Academic Dean of St. Joseph's College.

Recently, at the Faculty Meeting in Patchogue, Sister Jean Marie Amore shared with faculty and administrators that in response to a request from the Sisters of St. Joseph, she will resign as Academic Dean, effective in June.

As many of you know, in 1990, Sister Jean was elected as General Councillor of the Sisters of St. Joseph. In August 1994, she was re-elected for a six year term. Until now, she has given every Tuesday and additional personal time to Congregational administration. For the next five years, the administrative role will be full-time. She has therefore concluded that it will no longer be possible for her to continue as Academic Dean, College of Arts and Sciences, Suffolk Campus.

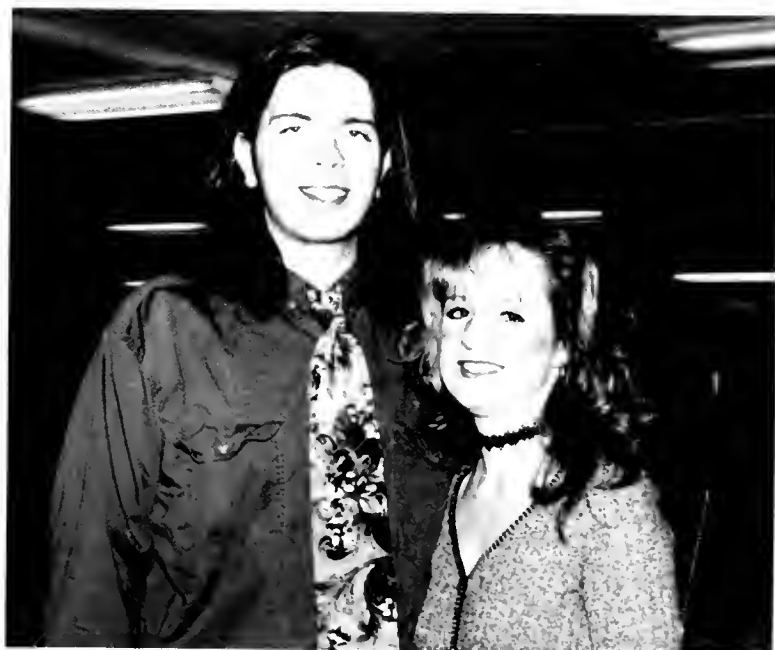

It is with very deep regret, personal as well as professional, that I have accepted Sister Jean's resignation. In her ten years as Dean, she has given splendid leadership to the academic development of the campus. In the process, she has won the respect and affection of the College community. We are deeply grateful for all that she has done and for all that she means to us. At a later date we will celebrate her role among us in an appropriate way. Moreover, through an extended leave of absence, we hope to bring Sister Jean back as a Professor of Child Study five years from now.

CLASS OF '95

SJC'S LARGEST

GRADUATING CLASS

EVER --

492!!

The torch was passed in the summer of 1994. After hearing about the legendary rock festival from their parents for years, a new generation seized the opportunity to create their own Woodstock. And Woodstock '94 was born. Several hundred thousands people arrived at Saugerties, N.Y. for Woodstock '94. From folk music to heavy metal, the weekend concert was filled with music almost 24-hours a day.

Tropical Storm Alberto hit the South, and the Georgia floods made history. The storm unloaded more than 20 inches of rain and caused flooding that killed 31 people. Forty-nine counties were declared federal disaster areas and about 46,000 people were driven from their homes. In Albany, 30,000 people were evacuated and 9,200 houses and apartments were damaged or destroyed.

The Baseball Season ended early in 1994. The players went on strike in August and a month later the owners voted to cancel the remainder of the regular season, including the playoffs and the World Series. It was the eighth strike in 23 seasons. The dispute centered on the owners' demand to create cost controls through a salary cap. The players wouldn't accept it and went on strike. It was the first time since 1904 that the World Series, which had survived world wars and an earthquake since its inception in 1903, was not played.

The 1994 World Cup soccer competition was played in the United States. In this photo, the U.S. team played Brazil but lost 1-0 in the second round. Brazil advanced to the finals and in the final game, it was Brazil vs. Italy. An estimated 2 billion people worldwide watched Brazil battle Italy to a 0-0 tie for 120 minutes at the final game played in the Rose Bowl. Brazil won 3-2 in a shootout.

President Bill Clinton entered 1995 with hope for a better year. Although he won a significant political battle with the Crime Bill, he lost the Health Care proposal that he battled for all year. The 48-year-old Democratic president, who struggled to win an up-hill battle against incumbent President George Bush in 1992, said the passage of the Health Care bill was his most important mission as president.

National health care legislation, President Clinton's grandest legislative goal of the year, failed to come to a vote in Congress in the final months of the year. The legislation would have guaranteed medical care to all Americans. It staggered under the weight of withering attacks from Republicans and insurance interests for many months. President Clinton and other Democrats immediately said they would try to bring health care legislation back to life next year.

One critic called their music "pseudo grunge", but Stone Temple Pilots didn't let that bother them. Even while previous album "Core" was still on the charts, they made it to the Top 10 with "Purple." This San Diego-based group can crank it out with some sturdy guitar work.

Refugees fleeing the dictatorial regime of Fidel Castro were refused entry into the United States. President Bill Clinton ended 28 years of favored treatment for Cuban refugees. He ordered U.S. ships to intercept those fleeing Cuba by boat to detain them at the U.S. Navy base in Guantanamo Bay. Castro was allowing the refugees to leave the island country and tens of thousands boarded makeshift vessels bound for Florida. In 1980 Castro flooded Florida with more than 125,000 Cubans. It was known as the Mariel boat lift.

Andre Agassi

Andre Agassi was the people's choice at the U.S. Open Tennis Championship in New York. It was an easy win against Michael Stich of Germany. The 24-year-old Agassi became the first unseeded player to win the crown since Fred Stolle in 1966 and only the third in the 114-year history of the tournament. It was Agassi's first U.S. Open title.

Miss America

Heather Whitestone is deaf and she achieved her goal of becoming Miss America. The 21-year-old native of Birmingham, Ala., who became deaf at the age of 18 months after a reaction to a diphtheria shot, has 5 percent hearing in her left ear. The junior at Jacksonville State University reads lips, uses a hearing aid and knows sign language. But her disability didn't impair her ballet performance at the Miss America competition — even though she could only feel its vibration.

OJ Simpson

It was called the trial of the century. The trial of O.J. Simpson. He was accused of brutally murdering his ex-wife, Nicole Brown Simpson, and her friend, Ronald Goldman. There was so much interest in the case that even the preliminary hearing was televised nationally. Simpson put together an expensive "dream team" of lawyers, lead by Robert Shapiro. On the prosecution side, prosecutor Marcia Clark represented the district attorney's office.

Jerry Rice

At 31, Jerry Rice had the National Football League record for career touchdowns. And then, the 10-year pro with the San Francisco 49ers became the league's all-time touchdown scoring leader. His two touchdown receptions and 23-yard scoring run in the season-opening 44-14 victory against the L.A. Raiders increased his career total to 127. That was one more than Jim Brown had when he retired in 1965 after nine seasons with the Cleveland Browns.

BASKETBALL HOMECOMING

FROM START TO FINISH

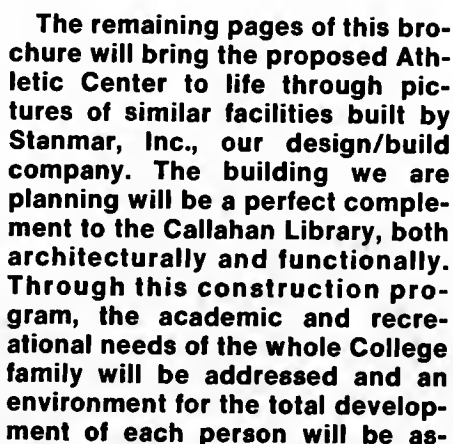

A detailed architectural sketch of a long, low building, likely a school or community center. The building features a central gabled section with a large circular window. To the right, there is a long, covered walkway or porch area supported by columns. The drawing includes surrounding landscape elements like trees and a paved area in the foreground.

As a college in the liberal arts tradition, St. Joseph's has always embraced the ideal of a holistic educational environment which nurtures the development of a "sound mind in a sound body". Therefore, we have always sought to provide a full range of academic programs and athletic activities for our students. Even in the earliest days of our history, SJC's basketball team had an enviable reputation, and in the last few years, our athletics program has grown in leaps and bounds . . . especially at our Suffolk campus.

The growth of the athletics program is but a part of the astonishing success we have experienced since the Patchogue Campus was opened in 1979. In that short time, our enrollment has increased more than 600% . . . from under 400 in 1979, to over 2300 in the current academic year. This rapid development inspired us to undertake a study of our present and long-term needs, and the resulting Ten-Year Master Plan is now in the early stages of implementation.

The Master Plan envisions the creation of a beautiful yet functional campus at which each student would find appropriate, ample facilities for study and recreation. The interests of our faculty, staff, and alumni, as well as our many friends in the local community, were also carefully considered as we developed a three-phase program for expansion.

Phase I is already well on the way to completion, and it will result in an elegant Academic Center consisting of 8 classrooms, lounge areas, student offices, and a large multi-purpose meeting room. This Center is being created in what was our gymnasium, and so Phase II of our Master Plan calls for the construction of a state-of-the-art Athletic Center . . . with a target completion date of September 1996. Phase III incorporates a new Student Center.

sured. Perhaps, we may even reach the ideal of "a sound mind in a sound body".

Your help is vital if we are to succeed. Please consider joining us in this exciting enterprise.

Sincerely,

Sister George Aquin O'Connor

Life Is A Journey

PLEASE JOIN US ON THE CAMPUS GREEN
FOR A RECEPTION FOR OUR GRADUATES

DEAR GRADUATES OF 1995,

*There is an old tradition that God sends each person into this world with a special message to deliver,
with a special song to sing for others,
with a special act of love to bestow.
No one else can speak my message,
or sing my song, or offer my act of love.
These have been entrusted only to me.*

*According to this tradition,
the message may be spoken, the song sung,
the act of love delivered only to a few,
or to all the people in a small town,
or to all the people in a large city,
or even to all the people in the whole world.
It all depends on God's unique plan for each unique person.*

*So from our hearts we want to say this to you:
Please believe that you have an important message to deliver,
you have a beautiful song to sing,
and a unique act of love
to warm this world and to brighten its darkness.*

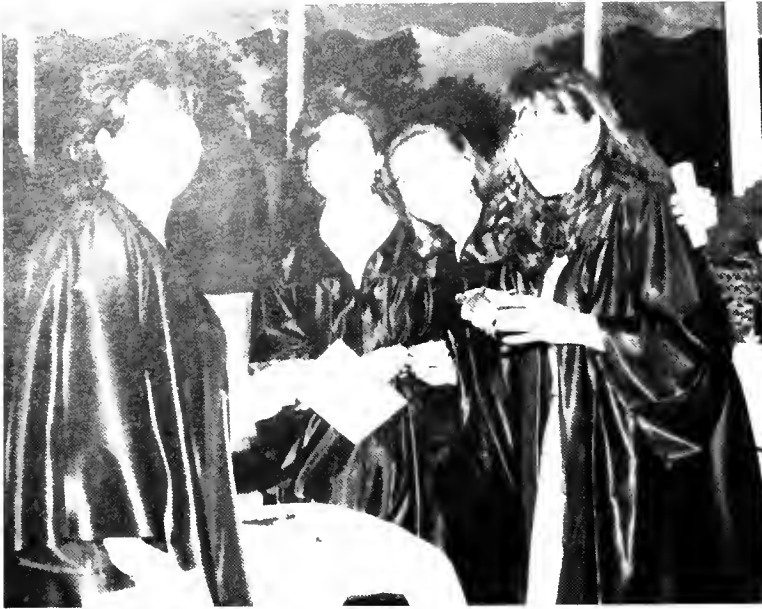

*And when the final history of this world is written,
your message, your song, and your love will be recorded gratefully and forever.*

You are in our hearts and prayers always.

History of Commencement Robes

What suggests the future more than the sight of graduates in academic robes?

The garb is an ancient one, centuries old and rich in meaning. Academic dress is traced to the robes medieval monks wore for warmth in unheated monasteries. The hoods on today's commencement robes probably originated from the need to keep tonsured heads warm. Since clergy were the literate class in medieval society, they became associated with scholarship. And the first universities actually grew up around the great cathedrals that were centers for ecclesiastical education. As the universities began to train young men for occupations other than the ecclesiastical, such as law, some students probably were inclined to abandon "monkish" robes for more worldly garb.

Possibly in reaction to this, a 1321 statute at the University of Coimbra required all "Doctors, Licentiates, and Bachelors" to wear gowns. Other statutes during the second half of the 14th century forbid "excess in apparel" at English universities, instead directing the wearing of long gowns. This distinctive dress set students apart from other citizens in university towns, fueling the historic conflict between "town and gown."

Academic dress design varies among European institutions. But the United States has a standardized code of academic dress authorized by the American Council on Education. Because of this code we can look at today's commencements and know the wearer's study discipline, degree level and even what institution he or she is graduating from.

According to the Academic Costume Code, a bachelor's gown is worn closed with long, pointed sleeves. A master's gown is worn open, with long sleeves cut to hang away from the forearm in an oblong shape. Doctor's gowns can be worn open or closed and may be trimmed with wide velvet panels running down the gown's front and velvet bars on the sleeves. This velvet is black or the color of the wearer's study discipline. Hoods, if used, are lined in the college or university's color and bordered with a color that indicates the wearer's degree.

According to the Academic Costume Code, here are the colors associated with degrees or study disciplines:

Agriculture	Maize	Medicine	Green
Arts, Letters, Humanities	White	Music	Pink
Commerce, Accountancy	Drab	Nursing	Apricot
Business	Drab	Oratory (Speech)	Silver Gray
Dentistry	Lilac	Pharmacy	Olive Green
Economics	Copper	Philosophy	Dark Blue
Education	Light Blue	Physical Education	Sage Green
Engineering	Orange	Public Administration	Peacock Blue
Fine Arts	Brown	Public Health	Salmon Pink
Forestry	Russet	Science	Golden Yellow
Journalism	Crimson	Social Work	Citron
Law	Purple	Theology	Scarlet
Library Science	Lemon	Veterinary Science	Gray

I leave to:

"The Best Friends", Brandi/Morgan, Liz/Dominique, and Michele/ Nina - a baby chameleon to crawl all over you guys. And all the memories of our awesome years together - I'm not gonna get mushy.

Dennis, Booty Bomber - All my love forever and ever; my beautiful station wagon; my money (all negative $2000 of it); all the happiness you deserve; no stress; and the rest of my life. I love you!

Linda - "sci-fi man", "guy with the checkered pants", and all the business knowledge in the world.

Karen & Leah - Tons of beer at Billies and hot men too.

Reilly - My promise to be at mustangs and all the oldies tapes in the world.

I Chris Henaghan, leave Gina the countless hours of reading. The romantic nights in front of the computer. Planning the Dinner Dance and my eternal undying love. To my parents I leave all the support and love they've given me and my promise to educate the children of tomorrow the best I can.

Gina Fioravielli

To Jen, Jen, & Heather I leave Beavis, proposals, thesis, and endless research.

To Lisa Deluca I leave sleepless nights at work and cold parking lots and skipping class.

To Theresa Pecorelli I leave dirty dishes in the sink, late nights and phone calls from jail.

To my loving boyfriend Mike I leave my past, present, and future!!

Tonya Guggino

I bequeath to:

Mom, Dad, & Justine - My love and gratitude. I couldn't have done it without you.

Gina - A standing ovation, gadgets, gizmos, whojits, whatits, and thingamabobs too!

Chris - A standing ovation and a soft-top that stays put on the expressway.

Larry & Donna - Years full of love, success, and useless debates.

Jeff - Hot chocolate and choco-chip brownies.

Erin & Jenn - A life lacking encounters with "stupidgirls".

Jody Lloyd

Honey, I leave you a lifetime supply of quarters to play Mortal Kombat, and my love always, Love your Punkin.

Brandi Mac Connie

I leave:

To my three best friends: Michelle, Ellen, and Liz - all the wonderful memories that we have shared in the past (especially Florida). No matter where our paths take us, you can always look at your charm and know that the pieces and our hearts will always be together.

To Paulette and Lisa - that feeling we all experienced when we pulled together and accomplished a goal — winning Lip Service.

To my sorority sisters - all my thanks for being there for me and giving me fond memories. Thanks.

Michele Mushorn

I leave to:

- Brandi, Ellen and Liz: You're my best friends and you get all our memories of Florida, Billie's, Simba, Models Inc., chameleons, ceramics, BY, Connecticut, beers floating in my pool, truth/dare sessions in Florida, a ketchup bottle and most of all a friendship that will be forever - we have charms to prove it.

- Leah and Karen: All the beers at Billie's you can drink are on me.

- Dennis: Senor Ferrotti and Mr. Black are yours.

- Carver: All our "dogs in hear" memories are for you.

- BY Sisters: Many years of love and luck.

Paulette Nostro

Paulette leaves Melissa, Matt and Dave memories of MGD, the Mustang and pop 'ems.

Nostradamus leaves Rippy, Fazzino and Brandi eternal Common Hour practices in sophomore year.

Snuffy - Never forget the Counting Crows - "Color, color, color, color" and losing your car keys! - "I can't believe" - "If it's this hot down here can you imagine"?! (Dave B. and Matt).

Ann, little sis, take care, soon we'll go to Huntington Bars.

KF - Beware of Commack guys and Leah be aware of Northport guys.

I love all you guys, you are my bestest buddies and let's always be friends! (Despite Matt Gior "daah" no).

Chris: All the love in my heart, our long decisions, the never-running jeep, five years of precious memories, and four years of college we made it - together, I love you!

To Tonya: The day we met at orientation, driving in the HOV lane after our teaching tests, the never-ending stress of school, four years of memories and a life-long friendship.

A NOTE FROM THE EDITOR

This yearbook would not have been possible if it wasn't for the efforts of some very special people!

Special thanks to Dr. Frank Lerche, our advisor, and Carl Miller, our Jostens representative. Their help has been appreciated. I would like to thank Student Services for their time and patience in helping us complete the yearbook. I would also like to thank JoAnn, from College Relations, for extra photographs and the Talon for their articles. Most of all I would like to thank my outstanding staff for the numerous hours they dedicated to the yearbook. Without them this yearbook could not have been possible.

Congratulations to the Class of 1995!!!

Good Luck to the staff of 1996!

Thank you for the opportunity of being Editor for the last four years. It has been a pleasure.

Best of Luck and Thanks for Everything!
